6. Pursuant to the note, Robert Carpenter promised to make consecutive monthly payments of principal and interest each month, in accordance with the terms of the note, commencing August 1, 2003 and on the first day of each succeeding month up to and including July 1, 2033 when the entire principal amount and accrued interest shall be due and payable.

7. Pursuant to the terms of the mortgage, in addition to principal and interest, the Mortgagee can collect and charge to the loan all amounts necessary to pay for taxes, assessments, leasehold payments or ground rents (if any), hazard insurance and mortgage insurance.

Help for Homeowners in Foreclosure

New York State Law requires that we send you this notice about the foreclosure process. Please read it carefully.

Summons and Complaint

You are in danger of losing your home. If you fail to respond to the summons and complaint in this foreclosure action, you may lose your home. Please read the summons and complaint carefully. You should immediately contact an attorney or your local legal aid office to obtain advice on how to protect yourself.

Sources of Information and Assistance

The State encourages you to become informed about your options in foreclosure. In addition to seeking assistance from an attorney or legal aid office, there are government agencies and non-profit organizations that you may contact for information about possible options, including trying to work with your lender during this process.

To locate an entity near you, you may call the toll free helpline maintained by the New York State Banking Department at 1-877-BANK-NYS (1-877-226-5697) or visit the Department's website at <http://www.banking.state.ny.us>.

Foreclosure Rescue Scams

Be careful of people who approach you with offers to "save" your home. There are individuals who watch for notices of foreclosure actions in order to unfairly profit from a homeowner's distress. You should be extremely careful about any such promises and any suggestions that you pay them a fee or sign over your deed. State law requires anyone offering such services for profit to enter into a contract which fully describes the services they will perform and fees they will charge and which prohibits them from taking any money from you until they have completed all such promised services.

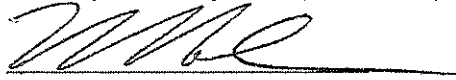

CERTIFICATION BY ATTORNEY

Todd Falasco, an attorney duly admitted to practice law before the Courts of the State of New York, an attorney with the firm of Frenkel, Lambert, Weiss, Weisman, & Gordon, LLP, attorneys for the Plaintiff herein, pursuant to Uniform Rule Section 130-1.1-a, states as follows:

I hereby certify, under the penalty of perjury and as an officer of the Court, that, to the best of my knowledge, information and belief, formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances, the presentation of the within paper or the contentions therein are not frivolous as defined in subsection (c) of section 130-1.1, including that the substance of the factual statements therein are not false.
